

WHAT PEOPLE SAY . . .

“Far better than Las Vegas: brighter lights, more humour, more tears, more past, more present.”

Suzanne Williams

“Writing is a sensitive labour. Budding authors need all the encouragement they can get and we get plenty from Anne. I’m glad I’ve got her skill, experience, personality and magic calling my work into being.”

Naznene Sparrow

“Just a note to say how much I enjoyed the workshop. Such a different style to others I’ve been to & very, very successful. It’s rare for me to say this, but I produced something at every exercise that I feel could be turned into a finished product.”

Anne Ballard

“A comprehensivity of approach: a wide range of styles, forms & themes was embraced, as was an awareness of the differing roots of creativity. One exercise got me in touch with a feeling/memory very familiar, but never previously written down. I was able to use this to finish a larger piece that had been dormant for twenty years.”

Neil Devlin

“Anne’s classes helped me find the place where my own voice was waiting.”

Alice Hiller

DO you feel you're able to access those parts of yourself that yearn to be expressed? If you are already working on a long-term project like a novel, memoir or thesis, do you feel stuck? Have you ever wanted to write and don't know where to begin?

"Finding the Inspiration to Write" is a workshop that utilises timed exercises and a physical journey to enable you to access the conscious and unconscious mind to free your imagination. The weekend will include:

- 2 daily writing sessions
- a half-day afternoon field trip on Day 1, to stimulate and inspire you (London destination to be announced on the day)
- techniques to start writing or develop work-in-progress
- a chance to create work that may lead to longer pieces of prose/poetry
- the opportunity to have writing done in the workshop read/discussed

Workshops will be conducted in a friendly, constructive atmosphere. They are open to anyone with a desire to write, from beginners to experienced writers.

Release the writer in you.
