

WHAT PEOPLE SAY . . .

“Far better than Las Vegas: brighter lights, more humour, more tears, more past, more present.”

Suzanne Williams

“Coming for the first time as a would-be writer, I found the “Write Now! in Ireland” stimulating. Anne’s format and teaching encouraged an unexpected flow of creativity.”

Seán Keating

“Writing is a sensitive labour. Budding authors need all the encouragement they can get and we get plenty from Anne. I’m glad I’ve got her skill, personality and magic calling my work into being.”

Naznene Sparrow

“Just a note to say how much I enjoyed the workshop. Such a different style to others I’ve been to & very, very successful. I produced something at every exercise that I feel could be turned into a finished product.”

Anne Ballard

“The atmosphere Anne creates is warm, inclusive and even a wee bit magical. The exercises will find stories in you that you had no idea were there.”

Amy Wilson

“Anne’s classes helped me find the place where my own voice was waiting.”

Alice Hiller

T: 020 7263 0669 E: admin@anneaylor.co.uk

WHAT sort of writer are you? What sort of writer do you dream of becoming? Have you found your writing voice? If you have not written before, do you want to find out what that voice might be?

This creative writing workshop uses exercises that enable you to access the conscious and unconscious mind to free the imagination and develop the voice that is uniquely your own. This weekend will include:

- 2 daily writing sessions
  - techniques to start writing or develop work-in-progress
  - a chance to initiate pieces that lead to more extended works of prose or poetry
  - the opportunity to have writing done in the workshop read/discussed
  - showcase session for those who wish to share work already written (please bring photocopies + your original to optimise feedback)
- Prose limit: 1300 words

Workshops will be conducted in a friendly, constructive atmosphere. They are open to anyone with a desire to write, from beginners to experienced writers.

Release the writer in you.

If stories come to you, care for them. And learn to give them away where they are needed. Sometimes a person needs a story more than food to stay alive.
